Grabbing our attention while at the same time slipping adroitly out of reach, the choreographer David Wampach and the pianist Aurélien Richard have hit the bull's eye with their piece Auto, which premiered at the Rencontres chorégraphiques de Seine- Saint-Denis. Bombastic and savage, this horrific fable goes full out into visual and aural saturation. Nervous giggles are guaranteed.

June 14 at the Festival Uzès Danse, Uzès (30).
